Don't forget to make Christmas gift tags! The Celebrate With Tags Stamp Set and Celebrations Tag Dies were used to create these cute little gift tags. You can quickly make a number of tags in minutes! The tags on the right and left are just that...tags. The center tag is actually a gift card holder. Remove the ribbon, insert your gift card, and loop the ribbon back into place and you're all set.

1. Card Cuts:

- For Gift Tags: Cut cardstock of your choice (as many pieces of cardstock to make the number of tags you will be creating) to at least 6" x 2-1/4" for die cutting
- For Gift Card Holder Tags: Cut cardstock of your choice (as many pieces of cardstock to make the number of tags you will be creating) to at least 8 x 2-3/4" for die cutting
- Scraps or cardstock, glimmer paper, specialty paper for stamping and die cutting of images
- Ribbon: Cut ribbon of your choice to approximately 6"

2. Choose the colors and papers you'll use for each tag.

3. Die cut tag or gift card holder.

4. Optional Step: For gift tags only, stamp "To/From" on the inside of the tag. If the outer portion of the tag is a dark color, die cut the gift tag holder again in white and glue the outer tag to the white tag. You will then have a light surface to stamp on for the inside of the tag. You can also create a white tag and cut it down the center and only glue half of the white tag to the inside.

5. Decorate tag or gift card holder with ribbon and/or embellishments.
6. Fold 6" ribbon of your choice in half and feed the folded end through the hole in the tag from the back. Pull folded ribbon about half way through the hole, then insert ribbon ends through loop and pull tight.

Simple and easy! I had a lot of fun creating my tags and I'll be making more soon! Enjoy!

The products I used to create my tags are included on the next page.
