- Sentiment Label Mat - Cut 1 Granny Apple Green cardstock to 2-5/8" x 1-1/2"
  - Scraps of Basic White and Granny Apple Green for stamping and/or die cutting flowers and leaves
2. To start off, I used the large eyelet die from the Darling Details Dies to die cut the frame from one of the white panels. I made sure to center the die onto the panel before cutting and used Post It Tape to hold the die in place. This die cut frame was adhered to another of the white panels measuring 5" x 3-3/4", then this unit was adhered to the card front and was centered from top to bottom and left to right.
  3. Using the Darling Details Stamp Set, I stamped one large flower, one half flower, and four sets of leaves onto scraps of white cardstock. The flowers and the 3-leaf image use two-step stamps. The flowers were stamped in Flirty Flamingo ink with the "fill" being second-generation stamped. The 3-leaf images were stamped in Lemon Lime Twist ink. The longer single-stamp leaf image was stamped in Lemon Lime Twist ink. I used the coordinating dies from the Darling Details Dies to cut out the images. I also die cut one open-leaf sprig from Granny Apple Green cardstock.

4. The "Happy Easter" sentiment from the Excellent Eggs Stamp Set was stamped onto a

Lemon Lime Twist sentiment label in Granny Apple Green ink. The label was matted to a piece of Granny Apple Green cardstock. The label was adhered to the card front using Stampin' Dimensionals and was positioned at the upper right of the card front.

5. The die cut flowers and leaves were arranged onto the lower left of the card front and were adhered with liquid glue, with the large flower and one of the 3-leaf images adhered with Stampin' Dimensionals.
6. On the inside panel, the large flower image outline was stamped onto the lower left corner in Flirty Flamingo ink and the leaf image was stamped on either side of the flower using Granny Apple Green ink.

7. The large flower and leaf images were stamped onto the envelope front with the flower stamped in Flirty Flamingo ink and the leaves stamped in Granny Apple Green ink.
8. The leaf image was stamped onto the envelope flap in Granny Apple Green ink.
9. A Lemon Lime Twist bow was tied and adhered to the top left of the sentiment label using a Mini Glue Dot.
10. Multiple Flirty Flamingo Rainbow Adhesive-Backed Dots were added to the card front.

This completes the card! This simple card came together very quickly, and I love the crisp look of the greens and Flirty Flamingo against the white die cut frame! Products used to create this card are included on the next page.
